

Answers

1) No chasing, no shouting, no teasing or scaring the animals, do not feed the animals (even at feeding stations), do not stick fingers or other objects inside the enclosures, do not litter, do not pick any plants or other living material

2) Currently there are 7 goats in the Children's Zoo.

3) Black

4) A weather vane

5) Two. Two bonus points if you identified them as Grey Wolves. One bonus point if you identified them as Timber Wolves (Timber Wolves are Grey Wolves that live in the timber regions of North America).

6) Buddy (grey-coloured)
Zeppelin (black-coloured)

7) Australia

8) 30,000 quills

9) Snowshoe Hare

10) a) frog c) dinosaur d) eagle
e) butterfly f) snake

11) c) herbivore

12) fish

13) Cygnet

14) Bison

15) 800

16) Pronghorn, 90 km/h

17) Yes. The female's antlers are smaller.

18) American Kestrel

19) Bald Eagle

20) Bison, Swift Fox, Brown (Grizzly) Bear, Black-footed Ferret. (Bison were re-introduced in 1907, Swift Foxes were re-introduced in 1985)

21) Bone. Antlers are the fastest growing bone found in nature.

22) Great Horned Owl, Great Grey Owl, Snowy Owl, Short-eared Owl, Long-eared Owl, Burrowing Owl

23) White flank or white rear

24) Ram

25) Four (usually three point forward, one backward)

26) An amphibian such as a Tiger Salamander or Leopard Frog.

27) 8 -10 times

28) Badger, Swift Fox, Red Fox, Lynx, Grey Wolves, Puma (or Cougar), Brown Bears (or Grizzly Bears), the Tigers, Black-footed Ferret, all hawks, eagles and owls.

29) Capuchin Monkeys (South America), Cockatoos (New Guinea), Geckos (various locations), White-knee Tarantula (South America), Domestic Ferrets (Europe), Yak (Tibet), Mute Swans (Europe), Alpaca (South America), Horse (Europe), Sika Deer (Asia), Fallow Deer (Europe) Pere David Deer (China), Central Bearded Dragon (Australia), Lions (Europe, Asia, Africa).

30) Black-tailed Prairie Dog, Swift Fox, Ferruginous Hawk, Short-eared Owl, Woodland Caribou, Bison, Burrowing Owl, Black-footed Ferret, Brown Bears, Lions, Sika Deer, Pere David Deer.

31) Camouflage

32) Canadian Arctic/North Pole/Northwest Territories/Nunavit/Tundra

33) 2008

34) Yes. Lions in southern Europe have been wiped out. Lions still exist in protected areas of Asia such as India,

35) Tundra Swans (native) and Mute Swans (introduced from Europe).

36) In parts of North America, the Brown Bear is known as the Grizzly Bear.

37) The Grizzly or Brown Bear is native to Saskatchewan. The last known Brown Bear in Saskatchewan was shot in 1939.

38) Lake Sturgeon.